Women in banking virtual event

A day in the life of our investment bank team.

Join us on a journey that will redefine the boundaries of client products and services as we know them today. Are you ready to be a part of a team that has the drive, ability, insight and expertise to ask the right questions; all to provide the best solutions for our clients?

This webinar will provide insights into our Investment Bank culture; learn about the career journeys of seasoned banking professionals and how you can start yours at UBS.

We're more than ourselves.
